

1.26 - The number of microseconds shorter the length of a day is on Earth as a result of the massive earthquake that struck Chile, the seventh-strongest quake in recorded history. A microsecond is one-millionth of a second. (Source: Associated Press)

34% - Thirty-four percent of Americans expect the unemployment rate in the United States to be higher a year from today. That marks a five-point increase from December. (Source: Rasmussen Reports)

13% - The increase in investment-banking fees for Wall Street firms for in 2009 to $59.8 billion, from $53.1 billion. It was still well below the recorded $86.9 billion hit in 2007. (Source: Bloomberg)

57% - Fifty-seven percent of voters say the health care reform plan now working its way through Congress will hurt the U.S. economy. (Source: Rasmussen Reports)

2,378 - Tiger Woods' ranking out of 2,500 celebrities in the David Brown Index, which is used by ad Agencies to gauge the abilities of celebrities to influence consumers. Mr. Woods once ranked 117th, putting him near singer Reba McEntire and comedian Robin Williams. His new ranking puts him in the company of rapper Lil' Kim and rocker Ozzy Osbourne. (Source: Bloomberg)