

121,000—The number of United Auto Workers who could face deep cuts in wages and health care benefits if Chrysler LLC and General Motors Corp. declare bankruptcy. (Source: Wall Street Journal)

54%—The percent of investors who think that the proposal from China's top government banker and a United Nations panel for a new global currency is designed to reduce the economic power of the United States (Source: Rasmussen Reports)

57%—The percent of Americans who say that taxpayers shouldn't pay more than 25% of their income for taxes. (Source: Rasmussen Reports)

25% of the world's companies, and 40% in the United States, plan to freeze salaries this year, but employees in South America and India can look forward to robust rises, a global survey shows on Tuesday. (Source: Reuters)